

MLA Librarians without Borders®/Elsevier Foundation/Research4Life Grants

Expand the number of trainers and users at Research4Life registered institutions

Increase the pool of trainers, creating a community of global health informationists

Build the Research4Life repository of learning and training with timely material

Ready to apply?

Deadline: December 1, 2020

For mre infomation, visit:

mlanet.org/page/lwb/elsevier/r4l-grant

Contact: Lenny Rhine
Coordinator Librarians Without Borders®
rhinel@ufl.edu

Funded by the Elsevier Foundation since 2007, the Librarians Without Borders® 'E-library Training Initiative' has focused on:

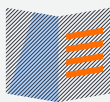

Workshops

97 workshops in 43 countries in collaboration with WHO offices and Research4Life teams

Training

For librarians and information professionals, researchers, lecturers and students, government and NGO staff

Updated material

26 training modules for Face to Face workshops;
New 2020 material developed in collaboration with ITOCA

E-Learning

11 e-learning courses;
3 MOOCs in collaboration with Research4Life and FAO

Since 2016, Research4Life grants have funded 20 projects. A majority of the grants have supported face to face workshops.

Due to the current Covid-19 environment, we encourage individuals to submit digital-based proposals.